

Contributor Covenant Code of Conduct

Our Pledge

We pledge to act and interact in ways that contribute to an open, welcoming, diverse, inclusive, and healthy community.

Our Standards

Examples of behavior that contributes to a positive environment for our community include:

- * Demonstrating empathy and kindness toward other people
- * Being respectful of differing opinions, viewpoints, and experiences
- * Giving and gracefully accepting constructive feedback
- * Accepting responsibility and apologizing to those affected by our mistakes, and learning from the experience
- * Focusing on what is best not just for us as individuals, but for the overall community

Examples of unacceptable behavior include:

- * The use of sexualized language or imagery, and sexual attention or advances of any kind
- * Trolling, insulting or derogatory comments, and personal or political attacks
- * Public or private harassment
- * Publishing others' private information, such as a physical or email address, without their explicit permission
- * Other conduct which could reasonably be considered inappropriate in a professional setting

Discourse Guidelines:

- * Try your best with eye-contact and active listening
- * Take thoughts into serious consideration and if we don't agree then have clear logical explanations as to why and if applicable find compromise

Attendance:

- * Show up at the expected time
- * Notified the other person if you're going to be late or of any changes of plans
- * Acceptable reasons for missing: open for discussion.
- * Must meet minimum once a week to touch base maybe 2.
- * If you miss a meeting, you have to coordinate with the other person to agree on tasks that need to be completed and have to finish those tasks before the next meeting.

- * Promptness—just be on time if not make sure to let your partner know beforehand.

Responsibilities

Project Partners are responsible for clarifying and enforcing our standards of acceptable behavior and will take appropriate and fair corrective action in response to any behavior that they deem inappropriate, threatening, offensive, or harmful.

Project partners have the right and responsibility to remove, edit, or reject comments, commits, code, wiki edits, issues, and other contributions that are not aligned to this Code of Conduct, and will communicate reasons for moderation decisions when appropriate.

Agenda and Notes:

- * Both takes notes and share in a shared doc/ drive

Participation:

- * Communicate via phone or text or whatever's available
- * Make sure both sticks to assigned tasks and help out whenever
- * Divide tasks by strengths

Meeting Times and Locations:

- * Decide via texts or phone calls
- * Meet through zoom or in person depending on schedule

Decisions:

- * Group consensus

Assignments:

- * Divide tasks clearly and fairly
 - * Make sure take responsibility and touch base if we need to update timeline to help each other accomplish tasks

Scope

This Code of Conduct applies within all community spaces, and also applies when an individual is officially representing the community in public spaces.

Examples of representing our community include using an official e-mail address, posting via an official social media account, or acting as an appointed representative at an online or offline event.

Enforcement

All complaints will be reviewed and investigated promptly and fairly.

All community leaders are obligated to respect the privacy and security of the reporter of any incident.

Any complaints, reports to TA or Vic.

- * Personal responsibilities to enforce rules
- * Open blunt honest feedback to each other

Enforcement Guidelines

Community leaders will follow these Community Impact Guidelines in determining the consequences for any action they deem in violation of this Code of Conduct:

1. Correction

Community Impact: Use of inappropriate language or other behavior deemed unprofessional or unwelcome in the community.

Consequence: A private, written warning from community leaders, providing clarity around the nature of the violation and an explanation of why the behavior was inappropriate. A public apology may be requested.

2. Warning

Community Impact: A violation through a single incident or series of actions.

Consequence: A warning with consequences for continued behavior. No interaction with the people involved, including unsolicited interaction with those enforcing the Code of Conduct, for a specified period of time. This includes avoiding interactions in community spaces as well as external channels like social media. Violating these terms may lead to a temporary or permanent Ban.

3. Temporary Ban

Community Impact: A serious violation of community standards, including sustained inappropriate behavior.

Consequence: A temporary ban from any sort of interaction or public communication with the community for a specified period of time. No public or private interaction with the people involved, including unsolicited interaction with those enforcing the Code of Conduct, is allowed during this period. Violating these terms may lead to a permanent ban.

4. Permanent Ban

Community Impact: Demonstrating a pattern of violation of community standards, including sustained inappropriate behavior, harassment of an individual, or aggression toward or disparagement of classes of individuals.

Consequence: A permanent ban from any sort of public interaction within the Community.
